Marshall Plan Aid For Spain Refused

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(AP)—The senate refused by a 42 to 35 vote today to open the European recovery program to Franco Spain. The vote turned down an amendment to the foreign aid bill that would have also provided for a $500,000,000 loan to Spain from the Export-Import Bank. Senator McCarran (D-Nev.) and Brewster (D-Maine) offered it.

Before the vote, Senator Connally (D-Tex.) said he thought President Truman and Secretary of State Acheson would not oppose an Export-Import Bank loan to Spain if Spain applied for it.

Connally, chairman of the foreign relations committee, had just come from a meeting with Truman and Acheson in which they had agreed to open the Marshall plan aid to Spain.

The vote was the first major test on the $3,272,500,000 foreign aid bill. Senate leaders have been trying to hurry final action on the big global aid measure, which has been before the senate since April 14. But a final vote still does not appear likely before next week.

Among other things, the bill would extend the Marshall plan another year at a cost of $3,100,000,000.

Last year McCarran failed in an effort to attach a $500,000,000 loan to Spain to the 1950 foreign aid bill. Since then the state department has agreed to ask the United Nations to extend full diplomatic recognition to Spain.

McCarran's latest "include Spain" proposal is several amendments aimed at cutting the total authorized for European recovery in the bill.

Senator Ken (R-Mo.) wants a slash of $1,000,000,000 in the European aid total. Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) has asked a $600,000,000 cut.

But Senator Taft (R-Ohio), who is supporting the Hickenlooper cut-back, said if the bill fails he would support the $2,500,000,000 plan figure voted by the house. That is $250,000,000 less than the administration has asked.

Committee Votes To Retain Tax On Night Club Costs

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(AP)—The house ways and means committee voted today to keep the 20 per cent excise tax on night clubs and also the imposts on coin-operated devices, bowling alleys, billiard and pool tables.

Slowing down its excise trimming process at night club costs, the committee also voted to continue the 20 per cent tax on club dues, initiation fees, and safe deposit box leases.

The committee thus held the line at about $578,000,000 in cuts of excises so far. But when it turns to the levies on travel tickets, freight and long distance telephone and telegraph the total may be boosted above $1,000,000,000.

President Truman has proposed a $650,000,000 limit on excise cuts and unless the committee finds new revenue in other taxes to cover the excise loss, the bill may bump into a veto.

While awaiting continuation of several excises in today's action, the committee made some exceptions to eliminate items from the imposts.

The proposed dropping the tax on bowling alleys, billiard and pool tables owned and operated by non-profit organizations. The tax is $10 a year on each billiard and pool table.

Moreover, it voted to exempt the imposts on one-cent coin-operated amusement devices. The tax is $10 a year on each coin-operated amusement device and $100 a year on each gaming or gambling device.

The night club tax is collected on the total bill of patrons at the places where there is dancing or entertainment, such as floor shows. The committee approved Wednesday a reduction from 20 per cent to 10 in the tax on travel tickets, but it decided to keep the 20 per cent rate on the cabarets.

Cotton Acreage Is Increased In Navarro County

Additional cotton acreages for some 2,200 Navarro county farmers have been granted under the government's allotment program, Secretary Bob Clicheu of the Production and Marketing Administration, announced Thursday.

Complete figures have not been summarized, said Clicheu, but he estimated the additional grants would be about 2,000 acres. Notices of the increases are in the mails.

Some 3,000 applications for more acreage were filed with the local PMA office, but many of the applicants failed to qualify, Clicheu said.

About half of the additional acreage came as a result of "turn-backs"—from farmers who planted under their allotments.

Among other things, the bill would extend the Marshall plan another year at a cost of $3,100,000,000.

Chrysler Talks Making Progress, Both Sides Say

DETROIT, April 27.—(AP)—A record night-long bargaining session failed today to bring settlement in the Chrysler strike, now entering its 93rd day. Both Chrysler Corp. and the CIO United Automobile Workers agreed, however, some progress had been made.

Negotiators stayed in a marathon session until 5:30 a. m., CST, and then took a recess until 1 p. m. today.

Walter Reuther, UAW president, and Norman Matthews, the union's Chrysler director, issued this statement:

"Some progress has been made on some contract issues. However, a number of important issues still are unresolved. The union is prepared to apply itself in extended negotiating session in an effort to resolve all the issues remaining in dispute."

A spokesman for Chrysler said the union statement substantially reflected the status of the negotiations.

Rumors of an impending break in the strike arose Wednesday night. They persisted today. It was anybody's guess, however, as to what might happen.

Both sides, indicated they were making improved efforts to effect a settlement that would return 89,000 Chrysler workers to the job.

Overcoat Time Reported Again Over Midwest

By The Associated Press. It was overcoat weather again today for most of the central part of the country.

The cold fronts that fell in many parts of the cold belt. The floods in the Dakotas and Minnesota which have caused an estimated $50,000,000 damage appeared improved. Snow has been forced from their homes by the flood waters from scores of rivers and streams.

Flood crests on the Missouri river at St. Louis, Mo., and the Iowa-Nebraska area but no heavy damage was reported. About 500 persons moved from their homes between Sioux City and Omaha, Neb., in the center of southern New Jersey's vegetable-packing industry.

Cumberland County Judge David L. Horvitz released the office manager, Charles H. Frake, 40 in $5,000 bail on charges of aiding and abetting bookmaking, operating a gambling resort, and sending messages in aid of illegal business. He released the clerk, Mrs. Dellah Pattitucci, 26, in $2,500 bail on an aiding and abetting charge.

The raiders arrested the manager of the local office and a woman on charges of aiding and abetting bookmaking.

Tito Announces Yugoslavia Will Soon Nominate Diplomatic Envoy to Greece

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, April 27.—(AP)—Premier Marshal Tito announced today Yugoslavia is ready to resume diplomatic relations with Greece and will nominate a diplomatic envoy within a few days.

In a remarkable state-of-the-nation address to his new parliament in which he expressed hope for better relations not only with Greece but with Italy and Austria.

At one time Yugoslavia was accused in the United Nations of aiding and abetting the Greek Communist rebellion, along with Bulgaria and Albania. Since Tito was expelled from the Moscow-led Cominform as a strayer from Leninism, Yugoslavia's relations with Greece bettered.

Now, Tito told parliament, "new developments" presumably a recent government change in Greece promised that "from now on there will be possibilities to substantially improve the relations between our two countries."

Regarding Italy, whose claims to Trieste Yugoslavia has bitterly disputed, the premier said:

"Yugoslavia x x considers that the present exchange of problems between the two countries should not be a reason for worsening of relations. The efforts from both sides for improvement of relations, for economic and other co-operation can contribute to an easier solution of disputed questions."

President Urged To Abandon His Civil Rights Plan

ALTOONA, Pa., April 27.—(AP)—The American Council of Christian Churches today passed a resolution calling upon President Truman to abandon his civil rights program.

The resolution declared: "The contemplated use of federal police power in this field has stimulated serious tensions and sectional divisions, thus supporting Communist claims of race tensions and discrimination in the U.S.A."

"The American Council of Christian Churches believes that in reality the problem is basically spiritual and the exchange of problems between the religious, educational and moral forces upon which freedom ultimately rests are responsible."

At the same time, the council passed a resolution condemning anti-Semitism and calling upon Christian people to "oppose anti-Semitism and any effort to promote it."

The American Council of Christian Churches represents 15 Protestant denominations and claims a membership of more than 1,500,000.

The group winds up its two-day semi-annual convention here today.

NLRB Elections Ordered Among Workers For GE

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(AP)—The National Labor Relations board today ordered elections among 100,000 employees of the General Electric Co. to determine whether they want a CIO electrical union or its CIO-outside rival as bargaining agent.

The NLRB's regional office in Baltimore, which will handle the mechanics of the election, set the date for May 25. The vote will be held in a previous election, including the GE-operated atomic energy plants near Schenectady, N. Y.

The workers generally have a choice of voting for the CIO-outside rival, the National Union of Electrical Workers (IUE); the United Electrical Workers (UE), a union booted out of the CIO on the grounds that it is Communist-dominated; or no union.

'Not Qualified Witness,' Costello Tells Senators

Texmass Given Time Extension To Complete Loan

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(AP)—The Reconstruction Finance Corp. today gave the Texmass Petroleum Corp. an additional 30 days to draw on $15,100,000 RFC loan.

An RFC spokesman said the extension is designed to permit the Dallas, Tex., firm to complete "certain legal procedures" in connection with the transaction, which has been attacked in congress.

Under the loan agreement, today was to be the deadline for the company to finish legal requirements before it could start drawing on the credit.

The loan to Texmass was sharply criticized yesterday by a senate banking subcommittee which has been investigating RFC lending policies.

The group, headed by Senator Fulbright (R-Ark.) said the loan was "not in the public interest" and described it primarily as a "hoax" of existing creditors of Texmass.

New Senatorial Foreign Policy Plan Is Approved

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(AP)—President Truman today endorsed wholeheartedly a plan to set up eight senate foreign relations subcommittees to help bring about "a true bi-partisan" foreign policy.

Truman said in a statement he hopes the house foreign affairs committee will follow the proposed senate pattern to help provide for a "free interchange" between the Senate Department and Congress.

The president's statement was issued after he held a White House conference with Secretary of State Acheson and Chairman Connally (D-Texas) of the senate foreign relations committee.

Connally, author of the plan to set up eight subcommittees which would correspond with the organizational structure of the State Department.

Emil Barto Is Drowned At Ennis

ENNIS, Tex., April 27.—(AP)—Emil Barto, 63, retired Ennis hardware dealer, drowned this afternoon in Lake Clark on Ennis western lake.

Barto was fishing from a boat while his brother-in-law, Joe Longenecker, fished from the bank. Mrs. Barto had just started after the two to return to the town when she was notified of her husband's death.

Artificial respiration was attempted without success.

18 New Polio Cases Reported

AUSTIN, April 27.—(AP)—Eleven Texas counties had 18 new cases of polio last week. The State Health Department reported that eight of the new cases occurred in Hidalgo County during the week ending April 22.

Ten other counties during that period had one case each. They were Aransas, Bell, Bexar, Dallas, Menard, Pecos, Shackelford, Taylor, Tarrant and Tom Green. The new cases raised the state total for the year to 331.

TAX COLLECTIONS OFF

AUSTIN, April 27.—(AP)—The federal government hasn't been getting as much income taxes from Texans this fiscal year as it did during the 1948-49 year. Federal Internal Revenue collections from July 1, 1949, through March 31, 1950, dropped 8 per cent from the similar 1948-49 period, the University of Texas Business Research Bureau reported today. A 5 per cent drop in revenue was reported in the first district, South Texas, and a 9 per cent decrease in the second district, North Texas.

First Company Wage Offer Expected As Telephone Negotiations Brighten

NEW YORK, April 27.—(AP)—The first company wage offer for 10,000 striking telephone installation workers was expected today in a brighter overall phase of negotiations between the Bell Telephone System and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers of America.

The installation workers' union said it would cover all wage issues. The company made no comment.

The installation employees, on strike throughout the nation since Monday, have refrained from picketing—an action that could tie up telephone exchanges over the nation because some 240,000 other telephone workers probably would not cross their picket lines.

CLEAN BILL ALSO GIVEN TO LATTIMORE

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(AP)—Earl Browder testified today that there are no Communists in the state department to his knowledge and said he has never even met Owen Lattimore.

But a former Communist party chief turned defiant of a senate foreign relations subcommittee and refused to answer when Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) put a series of questions about "a 1945 meeting with Tung P. We, Chinese Communist, in this country."

Hickenlooper asked if Lattimore, John Carter Vincent, American ambassador to Switzerland, and a former U. S. consular officer, and Philip Jaffe, former editor of the magazine Amerasia, attended the meeting.

Browder refused to answer. He accused Hickenlooper of organizing a "witch hunt" against Lattimore.

Before the matter was dropped, Browder did testify that so far as he knows neither Vincent nor Service is a Communist. But he sharply refused to answer questions about his meeting with Tung, Chairman Tydings (D-Md.) tried to coax Browder to answer. He suggested Browder could say who was present at the meeting, even if he wouldn't tell what went on.

Browder said he couldn't—that it might embarrass Tung.

When Browder persisted in his refusal to answer, Hickenlooper said he wanted the record to show that the full membership of the investigating group was present.

This was an obvious reference to a recent court ruling that a witness cannot be prosecuted for contempt of a congressional committee unless a quorum of the group is present at the time he refuses to answer questions.

The committee is investigating charges of Communist infiltration of the state department.

Browder, who was expelled from the Communist party in 1946, said that if he knew of any Communists in the department he would say so but that he doesn't know of any.

Edward Morgan, counsel to a senate foreign relations subcommittee, asked him if he would give names if he knew them.

Probe Of Movie Morals Dropped After Meeting

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(AP)—The senate's proposed investigation of immorality of film stars and the motion picture industry was called off today after a conference between the film executives and Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.).

Instead of pushing his bill to license actors, producers and the industry, Johnson announced he would give industry leaders, including President Eric Johnston of the Motion Picture Association, a chance to clean up on a voluntary basis.

As chairman of the senate commerce committee, Johnson also announced that the public hearings set for May 15 are postponed indefinitely and that he is recalling from Hollywood a special committee investigator, Stephen S. Jackson.

OWIU Council Is Called To Press Texaco Program

DENVER, April 27.—(AP)—The Oil Workers' Industrial Union (OWIU) today called an advisory board meeting here next month "to intensify our program against the Texas Company."

Four Texas Company refineries are located in the state, and the union said a lockout exists at the plants at Casper, Wyo., Port Neches and Port Arthur, Texas, and Lockport, Ill.

A company spokesman said this charge "is so completely lacking in foundation that we feel comment is wholly unnecessary."

The Lawrenceville, Ill., plant is operating.

The union's advisory board is made up of 13 members, headed by O. A. Knight, president. Its meetings will be May 3, 4 and 5.

Cancer Victim Contributor To Current Campaign

Early diagnosis and immediate treatment are the greatest guarantees against death from cancer. A letter received today by W. E. McKinney, Navarro county chairman for the fund raising campaign to combat cancer, gives emphasis to the above statement.

Ousted Communist Chief Denies Acts Related By Budenz

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH. WASHINGTON, April 27.—(AP)—Earl Browder testified today that there are no Communists in the state department to his knowledge and said he has never even met Owen Lattimore.

But a former Communist party chief turned defiant of a senate foreign relations subcommittee and refused to answer when Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) put a series of questions about "a 1945 meeting with Tung P. We, Chinese Communist, in this country."

Federal Highway Aid Hearing Is Slated May 17

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(AP)—A hearing on federal highway aid legislation will be held May 17 by a senate public works subcommittee headed by Senator McClellan (D-Calif.).

In setting the date, McClellan told a reporter the subcommittee will consider a bill by Senator Chavez (D-NM) and possibly a similar house bill provided it is acted on by the house.

The Chavez bill proposes these major authorizations:

$550,000,000 a year for the federal highway system for the two fiscal years ending June 30, 1953; $100,000,000 a year for the interstate highway system for the two years; and $150,000,000 a year for county roads for the two years.

The house bill, presented by Rep. William C. Cramer (R-Texas) and approved by the house public works committee, would authorize $500,000,000 a year for the federal aid system and $70,000,000 for the interstate system but makes no provision for federal aid on county roads or so-called farm-to-market roads.

Funds involved would be divided among the states, on a 50-50 matching basis, about the same as in the past. Federal aid to highway this year and next is set at $450,000,000.

The total of $570,000,000 a year provided in the house bill for all federal aid to the states for the fiscal year and interstate systems included.

New Mexico $6,819,000; Oklahoma $10,489,000; Texas $32,042,000.

New York City High School Students Demonstrate For Higher Teacher Pay

NEW YORK, April 27.—(AP)—Thousands of jeering students, demanding "more pay for our teachers" marched on City Hall today but were repulsed by police.

Mounted patrolmen spurred their horses into the front ranks of the angry demonstrators, blocked their attempt for a third successive day to storm the office of Mayor William O'Dwyer.

CONVICTED—John Maragon, who used to be a friend of the White House, poses outside federal district court in Washington a few minutes before a jury convicted him of lying to Senate investigators last July. Federal Judge Jennings Bailey refused to release Maragon on bail. (AP Wirephoto).

Maragon Appears Headed For Long Tenure In Jail

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(AP)—John Maragon, who used to be seen around the White House, is temporarily in jail. And he appears headed for a more permanent stay.

Maragon was convicted Wednesday on two charges of lying to senate investigators and cleared on a third.

Unless Federal Judge Jennings Bailey agrees to his lawyer's plea for a new trial, Maragon may be sentenced a week from Friday. Until then, he is in the District of Columbia jail. Bailey declined to release him on bail.

Maragon could get as little as eight months to two years or as much as 10 months to 10 years on each of the two counts on which he was found guilty. The maximum penalty seldom is imposed.

Truman Schedules Eight Major Talks On Western Trip

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(AP)—President Truman has decided to make eight major speeches on his western tour. The President will start the trip May 7 and wind it up on May 16.

Ross announced the places and dates for seven of the eight speeches. They are:

May 8, Lincoln, Neb.; May 10, Pendleton, Ore.; May 11, Grand Coulee Dam; May 12, Butte, Mont.; May 13, Fargo, N. D.; May 14, Madison, Wis.; and May 15, Chicago, where he will address a Democratic rally.

The list omitted the Kortes Dam in Wyoming, where Truman previously had planned to speak on May 9. This led to belief that plans for the talk there had been altered and the speaking engagement for May 9 would be shifted to another state.

NEW PROBE STARTED

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(AP)—A new investigation into the loyalty of William W. Remington, commerce department economist, has been launched by the house un-American Activities committee.

Earlier today the committee was being driven back, 2,000 other students marched three miles to the Bronx county building and took up their stand there, blocking the entrances. They ignored the attempt of seven policemen to clear the entrances but scattered after 15 minutes when police reinforcements arrived.

Earlier today a vanguard of the City Hall marchers were met by police and turned back. Chanting "More pay for our teachers" and "We want Willie"—a reference to O'Dwyer—the youths retreated, hooting and jeering the cops.

COLOMBIANS RELEASED

HOUSTON, April 27.—Three Colombians were authorized to continue their return trip to South America today with their three planes but without a shipment of pistols and ammunition.

Rose Cultivation Advice Given By A&M Specialist

According to Sadie Hatfield, extension landscape gardening specialist of Texas A. and M. College, it is a little too late to plant roses unless one intends to use plants that have been held in cold storage. She adds, however, that there are a lot of things that can be done to make those you already have become more productive and beautiful.

Shallow Cultivation

The fertilizer should be worked into the soil by shallow cultivation. Deep cultivation at this time of the year will destroy the young feeder roots that are near the ground surface and this may retard plant growth and cut down the production of flowers. The rose garden can be mulched at this time and she says a good mulch of decayed leaves, straw, grass clippings, pine needles or well-decayed barnyard fertilizer will help hold moisture. Keep down weed and grass growth in the garden and will improve the tilth of the soil.

Roses do best in fertile soil. If fertilization is needed, now is the time to make the application, she says. Two or three pounds of commercial fertilizer for each hundred square feet of space in the rose garden is about right, but if you want to be more accurate, she suggests that you ask your local county agent about local fertilizer recommendations.

Black Spot Enemy

Black spot is "public enemy No. 1" so far as roses are concerned. It causes the black spots on the leaves; turns them yellow later and they drop. Die-back of the stems usually follows and if the disease is not brought under control, the entire plant may die.

Miss Hatfield advises that out-of-shape plants may be pruned from now until summer but no more growth should be removed than is necessary. Prune only to keep the plants at a convenient size and attractive in form, she adds.

WASHINGTON LETTER... by Jane Eads

WASHINGTON—National Home Demonstration Week is April 30 to May 6. Some 3,000,000 country women will show what they are doing to improve their homes and keep their families well.

In about 56,000 communities women will hold festivals, county-wide meetings, tours, demonstrations, exhibits and other activities. A part of the department of agriculture's co-operative extension service, the home demonstration program began in 1913. It features good home management, nutrition, food production and preservation, use of equipment, home furnishings, family relations, clothing, consumer buying community activity.

Home demonstration agents who conduct the program with homemakers are co-operatively employed by local county governments, state agricultural colleges and the agriculture department. "A part of the agents' job is to inspire and encourage the homemakers, as well as to give specific and technical help," Miss Mary Rokahr, in charge of the extension service's home economics specialists, explained. "Helping them are nearly 150,000 volunteer local leaders who have been given special training and pass on what they have learned to their neighbors. The week is especially set apart to pay tribute to these volunteer workers and to play up the results of their work during the year."

Miss Rokahr, who has been in home management work for 20 years, and has traveled through about every state and territory to give experienced advice in the program, told me that homemakers are "broadening their horizons and developing a better understanding of national and international affairs" everywhere. "In addition," she told me "rural women continue to work for better nutrition—1,204,000 families improved their food supply last year and more than 1,500,000 families received help in food canning, freezing, drying and storing.

"Also some 934,000 families were assisted with clothing, construction problems, and 784,000 with selection of clothing and textiles, with the result that new fabrics are no longer a mystery to homemakers," Miss Rokahr points out that in 1948, 40 per cent more families got help in home sewing than in 1942, which she says is a reflection of the home sewing boom sweeping the country.

"Improved housing is a big part of the program," she added. "Several hundred thousand homes were built, remodeled or improved in 1949. Nearly 22,000 families were assisted in rearranging or improving their kitchens, many thousands more in the selection of furnishing or equipment and in improving home grounds."

Mission Program Is Presented By WMS At Mildred

A community mission program was given at the Monday session of the Mildred Baptist WMS with the pastor, Rev. Bill Perdue, leading the singing and the opening prayer.

Mrs. John Hagler, president, spoke on missions in the community which is observed each fourth Monday when some sick or needy person is remembered. Mr. and Mrs. Truman Young and son, Bobby, were remembered Monday. The Young home was destroyed by fire, along with all contents, while the family was absent. They were remembered with a shower from the people of the entire community including Little Mildred, Eureka, Navarro, Providence and Angus.

Mrs. Frank Kent and Mrs. Bill Perdue rendered a duet — "God Will Take Care of You" and Mrs. C. R. Brashear gave two poems "A Nation Born" and "Have Faith" dedicated to the Young family.

The pastor brought the devotional with his subject being "Am I My Brother's Keeper?" and "Neighborly Love."

Mrs. Enos Hutson gave a piano selection, "The Old Rugged Cross," and Mrs. Lee Buck dismissed the meeting with prayer.

Refreshments were served to the large crowd by the WMS. The next meeting will be at the church Monday at 3 p. m., with the Bible study to be given by Mrs. Frank Kent.

DAR CHAPTER HEARS REPORT OF MRS. HORN ON RECENT CONTINENTAL CONGRESS

The James Blair Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met in called session Wednesday, April 26th, at 10 a. m. in the Dorothy Drane Room of Kinsloe House.

The purpose of the meeting was to hear the report of Mrs. A. B. Horn, state Historian and delegate of the local chapter to the fifty-ninth Continental Congress which convened in Washington, D. C., April 17th to 21st.

While in Washington, Mrs. Horn was a guest at the Mayflower Hotel. During her stay, she enjoyed a sightseeing trip over the city and viewed the famous cherry blossoms. She also visited Williamsburg, Va., where she spent two days touring points of historical interest.

In her opening remarks, Mrs. Horn described the DAR buildings where all activities of the Congress were held. These were Constitution Hall, Memorial Continental Hall and the new building which connects the two. On a chart given the delegates, she pointed out seats assigned to the Texas group and displayed various badges and tickets required for entrance to the sessions.

Prior to registration, which opened April 17th at 9 a. m., Mrs. Horn attended a breakfast given by Mrs. Frank C. Traut of Sherman and Mrs. Edward R. Barrow of Houston, honoring Mrs. E. S. Lammers of Dallas and McAllen, candidate for the office of President General, National Society, DAR.

Six Thousand Delegates
During the registration period, which ended Wednesday afternoon, April 19th, more than six thousand delegates and visitors were recorded.

Texas headquarters in Washington were on the fifth floor of the Mayflower Hotel, Mrs. Horn reported. Other meetings were held in the Texas Room, Memorial Continental Hall, which was dedicated at the last meeting of Congress.

On the evening of April 16th, Mrs. Horn was a guest at a reception given by the DAR of New Hampshire, honoring their candidate for the office of vice-president general. On the morning of April 17th, she attended a conference of State Historians under the leadership of Mrs. Van Court Carwith-in, Historian General, where she had the pleasure of seeing the Historical Scrapbook, which she had prepared for the State of Texas, win fourth place in the national contest.

A reception, with members of the Texas delegation as hostesses, was held in the Ballroom of the Mayflower Hotel Monday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, in compliment to Mrs. Lammers.

Formal Opening
The Congress was formally opened on Monday evening, April 17th, at 8:30 o'clock. During the procession to the platform, a large U. S. flag that had been concealed in the ceiling of the Hall, was unfurled over the President General, Mrs. Roscoe C. O'Byrne. This flag remained suspended from the ceiling during all sessions of Congress. Highlighting the opening session was a message from the President of the United States, Speakers for the evening were Mrs. O'Byrne and T. Russ Hill, president of the Martin Parry Corporation, who chose as his subject, "Bulwarks of Our Nation."

Tuesday morning, April 18th, was occupied by reports of national officers and a full report on "The Building Promotion." Tuesday afternoon, the new administration building was formally dedicated. At 8:30 p. m., the President General's reception was held at Constitution Hall. It was preceded by a concert by the U. S. Army Band, directed by Capt. Hugh Curry.

The April 19th morning session was filled with reports of DAR committees. Speaker for the afternoon was John W. Anderson, whose topic was "Survival." At noon, Mrs. Horn attended the Junior American Citizens luncheon at which time she received for Texas, in the name of Mrs. J. Wesley Edens, State Chairman, fifteen prizes for achievement among the youth of Texas. These included five first prizes and total cash awards of $58.

On Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, a concert by the U. S. Air Force Symphony Orchestra was given prior to the nomination of candidates for national offices. Mrs. Edward R. Barrow of Houston had the honor of presenting Texas' candidate, Mrs. Lammers to the Assembly. Also of interest locally was the nomination of Mrs. Virgil E. Browne of Oklahoma, sister of Mrs. H. A. Juengerman, Texas' candidate for Vice President General.

Texas Open House
At the close of this session, the Texas delegation entertained with an "open house" honoring Mrs. E. S. Lammers.

The Thursday, April 19th, business session was highlighted by a speech on "The Menace of the Welfare State" by the Hon. Cecil Palmer of England who will be guest speaker at the Texas Medical Association's annual convention which will convene in Fort Worth Sunday.

Thursday evening was given to the hearing of reports from the fifty-eight State Regents and those from the Philippine Islands, Hawaii, Cuba, Italy, Alaska, France, England, China, The Canal Zone, and Puerto Rico.

The reports were followed by the report of the tellers who announced the winners to national office those candidates on the slate of Mrs. T. G. Patton of Ohio. The winning candidates were then presented to the Assembly.

After a routine business session on Monday, April 21st, the new state regents and vice-regents were confirmed and the new national officers were installed.

Concluding the fifty-ninth Congress, a banquet for 6,000 delegates was held at the Mayflower Hotel, where music was furnished by the U. S. Marine orchestra.

BROADWAY....

by Mark Barron

NEW YORK—Personal notes off a New Yorker's cuff:

If you think that the Miss America bathing beauty contest at Atlantic City doesn't achieve some good purposes, you should listen to Gloria Leachman as she performs the role of Celia in support of Katharine Hepburn in "As You Like It." In 1946 Miss Leachman won $1,000 as one of the Miss America finalists at Atlantic City. She brought that money to Broadway to study piano and voice. In her home at Des Moines she had performed on radio programs but her money as a beauty prize winner enabled her to study to be a professional.

Despite her triumph as Celia in "As You Like It" Miss Leachman still is a home town girl. When asked what she considered her major triumph in the theater, she said it was when she had 17 pupils studying piano under her direction in Des Moines.

Four major stars on Broadway and in Hollywood movies today were those pals as youngsters when they appeared at the Birmingham Repertory Theater in England. They are Brian Aherne, Dennis King, Cedric Hardwicke and Maurice Evans.

Marsha Hunt, the star of "The Devil's Disciple," had to travel a long way before she could call herself a stage veteran. She is a New York City girl, but she played 54 motion pictures before she finally won a role on the Broadway stage. She also was a pretty model in fashion shows, but she just couldn't get a stage role. Finally she got a stage role because someone saw her on television, a remote way for a New York girl to get recognition on Broadway.

Among the several Oriental stars on Broadway is Mara Kim who says she is the only Korean performer on the show street. No one has come up to dispute this. Usually you can find Miss Kim dancing at the China Doll night club. But if there comes up an Oriental role in any Broadway play you are almost certain to find Miss Kim performing in the part. Her most recent was in the musical "Happy As Larry" where she played Clotho, one of the Three Fates. In support of Burgess Meredith.

New Orleans Gas Prices Increased

NEW ORLEANS, April 27—(AP)—Oil companies in New Orleans have inched up wholesale gasoline prices six-tenths of a cent per gallon. The average service station price here has been 30 1-2 cents for regular and 32 1-2 cents for premium gasoline.

John C. King, division manager here for Esso-Standard, said the increase was not peculiar to New Orleans or Louisiana. He said producers in several sections of the country recently raised cargo market prices.

Teague Teacher Scheduled For Address Friday

Agricultural instructors in the Navarro County Vocational Training School will be given a few pointers Friday on working out long term lease agreements between tenants and landlords.

J. E. Wells, high school vocational agricultural teacher at Teague, will discuss the county organization's faculty at 3:30 p. m. in the district courtroom.

Announcing this, School Co-ordinator Ralph Evans said Wells would explain his experiences and procedures in furthering said conservation and crop improvements by securing long term leases of land for class members.

Short-term leases are obstacles to improving land, since the tenant never knows when he'll have to move. Wells is well known throughout Texas for his work in removing this obstacle, Evans reported.

Wells formerly was with the Kerens veterans class of the county vocational school.

Cecil Parker, an extension service specialist working out of the local county agent's offices, also will address the faculty.

CORSICANA, TEX., APR. 28, 1950

LOOKING SOUTHWARD

The visit of the president of Chile ought to serve as a reminder to Americans that we as a people have not been paying much attention lately to our best neighbors. We are like a family which has become intensely interested in the troubles and well-being of other families across town, but never notices the folks next door. It's about time we made an effort to see the closer neighbors occasionally.

The official relations and functions go on. The American treaty groups operate in their normal fashion, and the Institute of Inter-American Relations has recently been given a five-year extension of its life. Occasionally a high Latin-American official, like the Chilean president, pays a visit. There is a quality of frigidity in our relations with Argentina, which has a Fascist type of totalitarian government, but we haven't had a serious quarrel with any of these neighbors for a long time. The situation appears to be serene.

But something important is lacking. It is the personal touch, which cannot be provided by our government, only by the people. We do not talk about Latin America as we do about Europe and Asia; we do not have the same awareness of the problems of the peoples, their wealth or poverty, freedom or oppression. The sense of keen interest in what goes on in the Old World is lacking with regard to our own hemisphere. The interest we take in Europe and Asia now seems to be required of us, but we can still find time to cultivate a greater, more personal interest in the Americas. We should do so.

PAINLESS APPROACH

From England a case has been reported of the use of hypnosis to prepare a patient for dental work. The patient called first on the hypnotist, who put him in a trance and then sent him along to the dentist.

Here might be a really bold step in the amelioration of the discomforts of modern life. It is all very well to talk about painless dentistry, and to equip the dental profession with anesthetics and techniques to soften their work. But all this is of no help at all in reducing the pain of contemplating a trip to the dentist, of getting the appointment made and then actually approaching the deadly chair. Now, perhaps, hypnosis can take care of that.

Some say, however, that a hypnotic trance may be broken by a sudden sound. Wouldn't it be awful to have that happen at the dentist threshold?

THE POPULAR WILL

The plebiscite or national poll of opinion, one of which the Belgians recently held to decide whether King Leopold should be restored to the throne, is not Belgian invention. Though plebiscites have been used at different times and in different places, the ruler who profited most by them was the Emperor Napoleon III of France.

Elected president of France in 1848, Louis Napoleon, as he was called then, seized the supreme power in 1851, and called for a plebiscite to show that the people approved. The vote, 7,400,000 against 600,000, was sufficiently convincing. Next year another popular vote called for the restoration of the empire with Louis Napoleon its head under the style of Napoleon III.

So far, so good; but in 1870 another plebiscite showed ominously enough more than 1,500,000 negative votes. The empire was clearly falling; within two weeks the war with Prussia began, and ultimately ended the rule of Napoleon III.

Plebiscites have sometimes been suggested for the United States, under the name of national referendum. While the constitution does not provide for them, Congress might lawfully call for one when it was desired to ascertain popular opinion. The issue would need, however, to be clear cut. Prohibition might have been a popular issue to be so decided.

For the present there seems to be no likelihood of a national referendum being authorized here. But Belgium's experience will be watched with interest.

OASIS FOR DRIVERS

To meet the need felt by many drivers for occasional relaxation and rest from driving or for a pleasant spot in which to spread a picnic lunch there has been rapid growth in the establishment of road side parks for these purposes.

Travelers are seldom welcomed in the privately owned wooded spaces which look so inviting to the long-distance tourist, even if such spots were easily accessible from the road. The roadside parks are easy to enter and often are equipped with tables, benches, drinking water, fireplaces and rest rooms. Some highway departments issue maps showing the location of parks, which in many cases are at intervals of five to twenty miles.

Aside from their convenience to the traveler, these parks are a definite safety device. A relaxed driver, rested, fed and refreshed, is less likely to contribute to traffic hazards than is one who is tense and weary from long hours of unrelieved attention to the road.

DEWEY AND THE RECORD

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey is being beseeched by New York Republicans to run for a third four-year term this fall. If he should consent and win, he would set a modern record for consecutive years in the New York governorship. Over the nation in recent years, the record for tenure is held by Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, who served from 1920 to 1935.

Dewey would still be a long way behind George Clinton of Revolutionary days and after. He was elected governor of New York for one three-year term after another from 1777 to 1795, and then again for three more in 1801. After that he retired to end his days as vice-president of the United States.

Dewey probably would not care about trying for a third term as governor purely to break a record. There is always the peril of defeat somewhere along the line. Ritchie was beaten after a long series of triumphs. Dewey has indicated that he may prefer to practice law.

COMPLETE AT LAST

Washington, Lincoln, Jefferson, Franklin and others of our great past are held in such high honor by Americans that it is a wonder how much remains to be learned about them. In particular, it is amazing that only now are efforts under way to publish their complete writings. It is true that editions exist, appearing to be the complete works of some of these men. But it quickly is evident that much has been left out. Quantities of letters, handed down in the recipients' families, turn up only after prolonged search; yet they should be included. Then there are unsigned writings which have to be culled laborously out of obscure old newspapers. All of this costs money and is really a large-scale corporate enterprise.

That explains why the complete Thomas Jefferson has only now got under way. The first of 52 volumes will appear on May 17 with President Truman the chief speaker at a ceremony in the Library of Congress. The Princeton University Press is the publisher, and the chief editor is the Princeton librarian, Prof. Julian P. Boyd. The work will take at least twenty years to complete.

At the same time the compilation of Lincoln's complete writings will be going on at another New Jersey college, Rutgers University. That is another major undertaking.

Who would like to finance some of the remaining tasks? Besides Franklin, there are Madison, Hamilton, Clay, Calhoun and the great of our own time. A durable satisfaction is calling.

WORKING FOR TAXES

Taxation for the support of the government in Great Britain has reached a point where a well known novelist and film writer has decided to work only four months out of the year. R. C. Sheriff refused an offer of $28,000 for a film scenario, declaring that he would be able to keep only $280 from the amount. This figure would represent for him the difference between a year's income and that for four months, less taxes.

This is the same principle which motivates the laborer who refuses to put in overtime because his increased pay would put him in a higher tax bracket and give him little if any benefit.

The Labor government congratulates itself on what it calls an economic revolution. It's stated aim, the abolition of huge incomes, while not without its good points, has gone so far under its own momentum that a stalemate is likely to result. The basis for prosperity in any country lies not in establishing small incomes for those at the top, but in full production from top to bottom.

THE WARMER ARCTIC

When you want to know something, go to headquarters. This probably is why an international group of scientists in May will visit Baffin Island, north of Canada and in the general latitude of Greenland, to see if the glaciers and ice caps are melting. They have been found to be doing so in Alaska and Norway. Other signs of milder weather have been observed in the Canadian Northwest, and in the Arctic island of Spitzbergen, which ships can now reach nine months in the year instead of three.

If the Arctic is growing warmer, the effect is bound to be manifest in our temperate zone. All but the hardest will applaud.

A CALL FOR WAR

"This country should make war!" This is the cry, fortunately, not of a leading figure in Washington, but of the general secretary of the All-India Hindu Mahasabha, an organization claiming 600,000 members and many more sympathizers. The war that he wants is against Pakistan. His society has been inflamed by tales that Mohammedans are slaughtering Hindus in Pakistan's province of East Bengal. Exchange of populations is suggested as a solution, but the Mahasabha prefers war.

Nothing could be more reckless. If war came, it would ruin both India and Pakistan. Any group of men who deliberately demand war must live in some dream world.

How wonderful it would be to have nothing to do with anything that went on outside our borders. Americans used to think that way, and some again have yielded to the temptation and arranged their thinking accordingly. Unfortunately, whatever we may like to believe, the United States simply is not living in that kind of a world.

According to the experts it is ten times as hard to roll a perfect game of twelve consecutive strikes in bowling as to shoot a hole in one on the golf course. So much for the experts; now let's talk about the way we do it.

At housecleaning time the pane in the window means a pain in the neck.

New Jet Engine Is Proving Good Chimney Sweep

LONDON, April 27.—(AP)—A British railways turbo-jet locomotive making trial runs in the Swindon region is turning out to be a surprisingly swift chimney sweep.

The locomotive whizzes past small stations at 90 miles an hour. Under the station platforms it pushes ahead a blast of air which blows off the station masters' hats and knocks over their waste paper baskets.

Then station attendants discovered that if they leave doors open the explosive blast of air goes up the chimneys and scatters soot over the countryside.

So the station chimneys along the line are slick as a whistle, and turbo-jet being called the "swoosh express."

ANCIENT EVIL OF OPPRESSION STILL HAUNTS MODERN WORLD

The Prophet Amos 27 Centuries Ago Denounced Greed—His Message More Popular With the Passing Years—The Bible Has Much to Say About Free Enterprise

BY WILLIAM T. ELLIS and EARL L. DOUGLASS

As we pursue our study of the Hebrew prophets, we pause to consider the springs of profound religious feeling, the soil of great revelations concerning the Infinite. For the most part, the prophets were, like Moses and Jesus and Mohammed, men of the common life. Thinkers, dreamers, brooders, they piled the lowly tasks of ordinary men while their minds went searching and soaring after the profoundest truths.

Prophet in Homespun. If there was ever a common, ordinary man who walked unannounced upon the stage of human history, that man was the Hebrew prophet, Amos. His hasty, unsentimental message, but the theme upon which he most often dwelt was that of social justice. He was the peerless prophet of this great imperative: "So he furiously attacked the greed, the luxury, the frauds, the bribe-giving the injustice of the upper classes. He held them to an ultimate reckoning with the pure and unadorned words of the Lord who 'trampled upon the poor,' and 'made the ephraim small and the shekel great.' His cry was, 'Let justice roll down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.'"

Day after day this rough representative of God, from the wilds of Tekoa, poured forth his message of social justice. He did not even spare the outwardly correct religious observances of Bethel—for the rich who oppressed the poor were careful about church attendance and church ceremonies. Amos shocked his hearers with such messages from Jehovah as, "I hate, I despise your feasts, and I will take no delight in your solemn assemblies." To him the great orthodoxies were justice and love.

The Problem Today. It is universally admitted today that we stand at one of the important cross-roads of the world history. There is widespread and frenzied confusion as men argue over the roads which lead into the future. The outstanding characteristic of our age is the determination on the part of the so-called "underprivileged" to get a greater share of the material blessings of life.

Every true man and woman thrills over the prospect of a society in which many of the shocking inequities of modern industrial life will be eliminated. The days of laissez-faire were not good days; they were miserable and cruel days, and the prayer and fair-thinking person is that they must never return.

Is the pathway to freedom marked "Communism"? The answer to that is the behavior of Moscow in satellite countries and in the concentration camps in Siberia. Does Socialism promise anything better than we now have? Look to England for your answer and compare living standards of the British people with the standards we have on the North American continent. Do the United States and Canada want to give up what they have for what Britain has?

Fraud, But Humbly So. After admitting all the injustices

Guest Program Is Given By Pioneer Literary Group

KERENS, April 26.—(Sp)—A highlight of the year's activities of the Kerens Pioneer Literary Club was the City Federation Guest Program, given at the First Baptist church.

Mrs. Earl Seale, president of the club welcomed the guests and presented Miss Mary Frances Hoffert who sang "Romance" and Mrs. H. A. Quate who presented a medley of familiar tunes on the organ.

In her introduction of Mrs. Matt Dawson of Corsicana, who was the guest speaker, Mrs. Seale mentioned the many times our neighboring city had shared its talent with Kerens.

Written by Request. Splendid as a story teller spiced with dramatic character portrayal, characterized Mrs. Dawson's review of Martha Cheavens' "Cross Winds." In her introductory remarks she mentioned other books written by Mrs. Cheavens and stated that the book had been written in answer to a request by the movie industry, for a book which would present the Protestant Religion in as favorable light as other best sellers had pictured other religions.

The story is about a young minister, Rev. Bronson, who realized that he no longer believed what he was preaching. Before giving up the ministry and accepting an offered position, he went to a small town on the Texas border for a rest. Here he accomplished miracles in the drab lives of several of the town's unhappy citizens, and in so doing brought peace to his own soul.

Though serious in purpose, the book had its witty incidents and its clever resume by Mrs. Dawson proved highly entertaining to the audience.

Following the program, the members of the Music, Garden and Pioneer Clubs went to the home of Mrs. G. H. Sanders for tea. Guests were greeted by Mrs. Sanders and invited into the living room which was beautifully decorated with spring flowers. The refreshment table held an arrangement of Dutch Iris, tulips, daisies and salvia in delicate

Attendance To Be Stressed—Plans For Enlarged 1950 Corsicana Fair Outlined At Meeting Of Board

Plans for a bigger and better Corsicana Fair in 1950 were outlined and prospects for greater attendance were practically assured during a meeting of Fair officers, directors and department heads on Tuesday night.

Forty-one persons attended the dinner meeting held in the Navarro hotel and the group approved a plan whereby attendance awards would be made nightly.

It was suggested the awards be worth at least $300 each night with a grand prize worth at least three times that amount to be offered on the final night.

In support of this program, B. L. Sanders of the First National Bank said the bank would provide $1,000 towards the awards if the other merchants would co-operate. Afton Burke said he'd provide $100 and would try to find nine others who would put up a like sum to match the bank's amount. S. J. Miles said his firm would be willing to co-operate and an expression from the automobile dealers at the meeting indicated they'd provide cars as cost if autos were to be awarded.

A tentative plan would allow each gate ticket purchaser and each rodeo ticket purchaser to be eligible for the awards.

J. N. Edens, fair president, said a committee would be appointed to work out details. Edens said the 1950 showing would be the 14th presentation of the Corsicana Livestock and Agriculture Show and Rodeo. He said he hoped this would be the biggest shades of yellow, blue and white flanked by lighted pale green candles.

Out-of-Town Guest. Mrs. Terry Sanders served mint shorbet and the guests served themselves white cake squares. In the house party were Mrs. E. L. Hulan, and Mrs. Andrew Talley who with the two Mrs. Sanders were hostesses.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Burleigh Butler of Corsicana, Mrs. C. B. Spencer of Dallas, Mrs. John Kitley of Lubbock, Mrs. John Wilson of Waco, Mrs. Richard Weed and daughter, Carol Jean, of Harlingen, and the guest speaker, Mrs. Dawson.

ning to have free entertainment and exhibits on the grounds. Brown announced the carnival this year would not charge a gate admission.

The fair manager said he hoped the booster trips in 1950 could be combined with good will trips for Corsicana.

All the speakers stressed the fact that the fair operates on a sound policy and builds and improves as it goes along.

New directors and out-of-town guests were introduced by Brown. Each person attending was given a bumper sticker to advertise the fair. Fair dates are Sept. 26 through 30.

Harvey mentioned that Brown soon would be leaving Corsicana for Lufkin and introduced a motion picture that the fair manager had extended a resolution of appreciation.

Edens said he would appoint a committee to draw the resolution and to send copies to Brown and the Lufkin Chamber of Commerce.

W. H. Walker gave the invocation. Guests who attended included the following: J. N. Edens, Mayor H. T. Bras-

Shivers To Ask Report On Crime

AUSTIN, April 27—(UP)—Gov. Allan Shivers has asserted that he will ask Public Safety Director Homer Garrison to give him a report on Texas crime.

"There is an increase in felony-type crimes—hijackings, armed robbery, and the like. I will ask Col. Garrison why that increase and what we can do to prevent it," the governor said at his press conference.

Shivers said his request to Garrison was prompted by State Prison Manager O. B. Ellis' report on the increasing population of the state penitentiary system.

During a radio interview with Ellis, the governor said Ellis had told him the penitentiary would reach its capacity of 6,700 inmates next year at the present rate of increase.

BROWDER

Browder said: "No, I would not give you the names."

Morgan: "If you knew there were any Communists in the state department would you tell me that?"

Browder: "Yes. To the best of my knowledge and belief there are not any in the state department."

Browder also told the committee that he has never met Owen Lattimore but knows him by reputation "as a person of anti-Communist views of a very profound character."

Browder specifically contradicted testimony from Louis F. Budenz, also a former Communist, that Communist party tasks for Lattimore were discussed at a meeting of party leaders in New York City in October, 1937.

Under Morgan's questions, Browder said he knew Frederick Vanderbilt Field and Philip Jaffe. Their names have come into the committee's investigation of charges by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) that the state department harbors Reds. Neither is connected with the department.

Browder was expelled from the Communist party in 1946 for having "deserted Communist duties."

Morgan asked Browder what agencies the Communists used to spread their propaganda.

With a smile, Browder said the Communists used every publicity medium, "including Congress."

Browder said he couldn't say "definitely" that he knew Field as a Communist.

"I assumed that he was," he said, adding that Field's co-operation with the party at the time Browder headed it was "complete."

He went on to say that he also knew Jaffe, one time editor of the Magazine Amerasia, but not as a member of the party.

"Did you accept him as a member?" Morgan asked.

"I accepted him as a friend," Browder replied.

Morgan asked Browder to make "any observations helpful to the committee."

"I have no reason at all to think there are any disloyal persons in the State Department or any other important apparatus of the government," Browder said.

He said he thought some officials in the past had espoused policies that were "detrimental to the United States," but he wasn't questioning their loyalty.

In response to question, he said the party made no effort to place Communists or fellow travelers in state department.

Budenz, former Communist editor who renounced the party, testified last week that Browder and other party leaders told him Lattimore was a member of a "Communist cell."

He said that at a 1937 meeting there it was agreed that Lattimore should direct the organization of writers to put across propaganda that Chinese Communists were agrarian reformers.

Lattimore, Far Eastern expert and now a professor at Johns Hopkins University, has denied any connection with the Communists. He also has denied the accusation by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) that Lattimore was a "top Soviet espionage agent."

In testimony that could lay either himself or Budenz open to perjury charges, Browder told the committee there never was such a meeting.

Browder already has told reporters that he never referred to Lattimore as a Communist, as Budenz said he did. Then Wednesday in a copyrighted story in the New York Compass, Browder wrote that Budenz' whole testimony to the committee was incredible and "vague to the point of vacuity."

Budenz himself, when he was on the witness stand, suggested that Browder be called to testify. He also suggested that the committee hear other "high Communist officials" he said had told him Lattimore was a member of a Communist cell.

One of the others Budenz named, Frederick Vanderbilt Field, is scheduled to testify at a public hearing Friday. Budenz called Field a Soviet espionage agent.

Field denied that in a statement in which he also declared he never told Budenz that Lattimore was a Communist.

McCarthy has said he is willing to let all his charges against the State Department stand or fall on the outcome of the Lattimore case.

After Budenz testified, McCarthy challenged the committee to call Browder and Field on condition that the two witnesses be subjected to what he called adequate cross-examination.

In advance of today's session, McCarthy declared the committee has had no time to prepare for a thorough-going examination of Browder.

"Of all the silly and ridiculous things the committee has done up to date, calling Browder at this time, tops the pinnacle of them all," McCarthy told reporters.

"Anyone who knows the faintest thing about Communism or Browder knows that to call him in when no one is ready to question him carefully is ridiculous to the point of being ludicrous."

McCarthy said it would take weeks of studying Browder's background to do the job of cross-examining he feels is necessary.

Browder accepted service of the committee's subpoena Wednesday after first protesting that he had no money for the trip from his home in New York to Washington. The committee arranged to advance expense money to him.

Corsicana Bands Will Parade At Terrell Festival

TERRELL, April 27—(Sp)—The Corsicana High School band and the Corsicana State Home band will have prominent places in the Kaufman County Vetch Festival at Terrell May 4-5, Festival Chairman John T. Clayton said today.

The Corsicana units will be among scores of other school aggregates in the four-mile line of march which will include military bands, National Guard units, industrial floats, horsemen, and other organizations such as the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Future Farmers and 4-H clubs.

"This will be the biggest parade ever staged between Dallas and Tyler," Clayton said. "Terrell and Kaufman County are happy to have the Corsicana band units with them."

Governor Allan Shivers, Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan, and Texas A. and M. Chancellor Gibb Gilchrist will be among the prominent Texans and national figures reviewing the parade, Clayton said.

Out-of-town participants in the parade will have food needs taken care of, Clayton said. He promised the Corsicana units an instructive and enjoyable festival.

In addition to the parade on the morning of May 5, there will be entertainment in the afternoon at Memorial Stadium. The second presentation of the "Voice of Vetch," a historical spectacle with 300 persons in the cast, will be given on the night of May 5.

Kaufman County residents have been working on details of the festival for the past six months, Clayton said this week that everything is "about ready for the start."

TASTY SPRING TONICS FROM THE GARDEN PATCH

ASPARAGUS AND WALNUTS . . . Delicious luncheon team.

POTATOES WITH CHICKEN SAUCE . . . From canned soup.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Nothing tastes better, come springtime, than asparagus—cooked only until tender, bursting with green. I like to lay them in a deep skillet with a tightly-fitting cover, and add just enough water to steam them so the asparagus stays cook in the same amount of time as the buds. Before cooking, clean the asparagus carefully in cold water with a vegetable brush and pare off the scales and thin outer covering of the stalks with a razor-like vegetable parer.

For a fine luncheon team the asparagus with an easy-to-make sauce, deviled eggs and olives, hot rolls and coffee.

ASPARAGUS WITH MUSHROOM WALNUT SAUCE
INGREDIENTS: 2 pounds fresh asparagus, 1 1/2 cups cream, 1/2 cup broken walnut meats, 1/2 cup mushroom soup, 1/2 cup milk, 1/4 cup butter.

METHOD: Cook asparagus in small amount of lightly salted water until just tender. Stir soup well; add milk a little at a time, stirring until well mixed. Heat; add walnuts. Drain asparagus; place on platter. Pour hot sauce over ends of stalks. Makes 5 servings.

And how about a new way to sauce potatoes? This sauce, too, is made from a handy can of soup. Try these potatoes with a meat loaf.

NEW POTATOES WITH CHICKEN AND PARSLEY SAUCE
INGREDIENTS—1 pound new potatoes, 3/4 cup canned condensed cream of chicken soup, 1/4 cup milk, 2 teaspoons minced parsley.

METHOD: Cook potatoes in 1 inch of unsalted water until tender; drain. Mix soup and milk, blending well. Add to potatoes and heat over hot water. Sprinkle with parsley just before serving. Makes 4 servings.

Among Corsicana attorneys to attend the meetings are Leighton B. Dawson, president of the Navarro County Bar, Matt Dawson and Doyle Pevhouse.

His Punch is His Signature

Was on the train up to Central City the other day and when the conductor came around, I asked him why their ticket punches make such odd-shaped holes in the ticket. "Every conductor in the country has a different design for his punch," he tells me. "Some even show up a fellow's preferences. Now take mine. The hole it makes looks like a beer goblet."

From where I sit, even though your ticket is punched differently from mine, it still gets you where you're going. Just like people with their opinions. You might like coffee, another person, tea—and I'll settle for a temperate glass of beer. But what does it matter, so long as we respect the right of the other to have tastes and opinions? We're all trying to go in the same direction — towards a friendlier, more pleasant world for all of us.

Navarro Students Attend Phi Theta Kappa Convention

The Zeta Omicron Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa at Navarro Junior College was well represented last week at the National Convention which met in Tyler on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. Phi Theta Kappa is a national scholastic honorary society for junior colleges.

John Remonte, sophomore engineering student, was the official delegate from Zeta Omicron Chapter. He attended all meetings. Margaret Panthi, sponsor, who is instructor of English at Navarro Junior College, attended all meetings except the one Friday morning. Other Zeta Omicron members who attended the convention are as follows:

Thursday: Margaret Johnson, Wayne Bower, James Miller, John McCord, and David Henderson. Friday: Betty Lea, Robertson, Wanda June Hawkins, Sarah Matthews, Jean Cook, and Marceline Steelman.

Saturday: Mary Winstead, Billy Dan Clark, and Chester Vaughn. On Thursday night, there was a buffet supper, followed by a forum at the First Christian Church. The Boys' Quartet and Chorus from Tyler Junior College entertained the group.

A luncheon at the Woman's Club at noon was a social affair. A banquet and dance at the American Legion Hall that night were the Friday highlights. The choir from Paris Junior College and a small group of Apache Belles from Tyler entertained at the banquet. Dr. D. Bailey Calvin, Dean, University of Texas School of Medicine, Galveston was the speaker. Saturday a ranch party and barbecue at Tyler State Park were on the schedule.

All business sessions were held in the Student Union Building at Tyler Junior College. Henry Martin from Bluefield, West Virginia, presided. The convention accepted an invitation from Independence, Kansas, for 1951 and one from Gulf Park College, Gulfport, Mississippi, for 1952.

Vocational Shop Program Of Great Value To Vets

The Navarro County Vocational Training School is providing formal training in providing training—all veterans engaged in farming—a "well balanced diet of technical training, plus completed projects for use on the farm and in the home."

Charles Barker, shop instructor, reports the veterans are realizing more and more the value of the program in their agricultural training program.

Shop centers are located at Kerens, Corsicana, Blooming Grove, Frost and Dawson. Each has adequate equipment for most farm machinery repairs, welding and woodworking projects.

Instruction is offered in the general use of this equipment as well as special instruction and actual demonstration in the building of equipment, Barker said.

Equipment recently built includes cotton rollers, spraying equipment and power lawn and pasture mowers.

"Numerous items which have sound practical use on the farm, and which offer the trainee excellent practice in shop work are being constructed," Barker said.

FIFTH SUNDAY SINGING

The Fifth Sunday singing will be held at the Cold Corner Baptist Church, Thursday, Sunday at 2 p. m. according to announcement by Rudolph Moran, president.

Potent Stuff—

Thieves Warned Stolen "Gasoline" From Cayuga Tanks Very Dangerous

At least four Navarro countians have been stealing highly inflammable gasoline—known as "distillate"—from storage tanks at Cayuga, Sheriff David Castles reported Tuesday.

The suspects are expected to be apprehended soon. Representatives of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association conferred with Castles Tuesday, providing him with license numbers of four automobiles spotted at the scene.

"They're not hurting the company—unless they'd haul it off in truckloads," said Special Investigator George W. Robey of the Mid-Continent association. "It's the danger to the equipment we're concerned with."

Explaining the fuel was "powerful stuff," Robey said "Just the least spark will set it afire." The petty thieves also could be charged with using untaxed gasoline in their cars, the sheriff commented.

Robey cited a case at Ranger recently, when thieves accidentally set off an explosion. He added that the same thing could easily happen at Cayuga.

Re-Pressuring Expected To Increase Oil Production Of Area Shallow Fields

Production in the shallow oil fields of Navarro county is expected to be materially hiked within the immediate future.

The re-pressuring of the wells in this section from 800 to 1200 feet in depth is expected to cause a considerable increase in the per well production.

Key wells are drilled to the salt water formations, according to explanations from oil operators, and this water is forced under pressure into the porous oil sands.

Oil is lighter than water and it immediately rises and seeks the higher places. The pressure provided by the salt water replaces the oil, the pressure originally given by gas when the wells were young. Then, too, the salt water under pressure washes out the oil from sands instead of allowing it to remain.

This same procedure is being carried out in some of the marginal oil wells in the East Texas field.

Plans are under way here to re-pressure the Petty's Chapel field, the old shallow production in East Corsicana and in the Phillips' Chapel field, the Coffield and Guthrie holdings southeast of Corsicana, and even in the old Mildred area where the deep Woodbine production was encountered in the early 1920's.

Navarro County Electric Co-Op Will Occupy $80,000 Home in Few Days

The Navarro County Electric Co-operative headquarters will move into its new and ultra modern $80,000 building here possibly within the next ten days, Manager Orlie Caudle has announced.

Located near the downtown section, on West Seventh Ave., the new structure is the most modern in this part of Texas. It will serve as office-headquarters - warehouse for the approximately 3,700 members of the Co-op, which serves Navarro, Ellis, Hill, Freestone and Limestone counties. Some 2,000 customers are in Navarro county.

Although not quite completed, the building will be ready for occupancy within ten days or two weeks, Caudle said. A few doors are yet to be installed and all of the furniture remains to be set up, he said.

The building consists of:

- Eight private offices.
- Lobby and reception room.
- A $3,000 modern kitchen.
- A large vault containing the bookkeeper's office.
- Warehouse capable of housing six trucks and all necessary electrical equipment.
- Two rest rooms.
- Linemen's lounge.
- Air conditioning unit for summer and winter.
- An inter-communication system linking all offices.

Two-way radio station for contacts with working crews. Presently located at 214 North Main, the Co-op has expanded from a mere 1,700 members four years ago to a potential membership of 5,000—the non-profit group's goal. With 5,000 members, the co-op would be providing a virtually complete service to the rural people, Caudle explained. At present, 1,250 miles of lines carry electricity to consumers in the five-county area.

The co-op's kitchen—a housewife's dream—consists of range, garbage disposal unit, refrigerator, deep freeze unit, hot water system, cabinets, and all the other essentials. It will be used at co-op conventions and for demonstrations.

Plans have been made to hold the annual membership meeting in the building early in July, Caudle announced. An open house will be staged then.

Another efficient feature of the new headquarters is a complete vehicle service system. Trucks will be serviced at the rear of the building.

Architects for the new structure were J. E. Metcalf and associates, and the contractor was Frank Rundell.

Officers were investigating the mishap Wednesday morning.

Sheriff Castles Guest Speaker At Lions Club Today

Sheriff David Castles was the guest speaker Tuesday at the Corsicana Lions Club luncheon, outlining briefly the duties of his office.

Emphasizing the need of the citizenry's co-operation with law enforcement officers, Castles declared that a safer and better community could result with the help of the people.

"One of the biggest problems we have," he said, "is traffic. We're all in too big a hurry and take too many chances."

Castles explained his civil duties and criminal duties, and described the jail's operation. All prisoners' mail is censored—incoming and outgoing—he reported.

As times have changed, he related, methods have changed, and the law enforcement step taken by the sheriff's department here is installation of two-way radio equipment.

The radio, he said, makes apprehension of criminals much easier. Before Castles spoke, a group of high school girls who assisted the Lions in their annual Showboat Minstrel, joined the male chorus in singing a couple of songs.

Representatives of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association introduced as a new member; and Commissioner Hays Bonner.

Erwin Samuels was in charge of the program.

Frank Dickson presented good citizenship certificates to E. J. Griffin and Orrie Harris, who were the club's selected good citizens from the high school during April.

Dr. Arnold Is Civitan Speaker Thursday Noon

Dr. Matthew A. Arnold spoke to the Corsicana Civitans Thursday at noon, telling them how to achieve equality in a world troubled by thoughts of war.

Dr. Arnold, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church here and a favorite Civitan speaker, told the club members that we must "take our bearings from Heaven if we are to know where we are on earth."

"It is odd," the pastor said, "that America, the strongest nation on earth in natural resources, is weak spiritually. We have a suppressed dread. We feel like under-sized men in a world of giants."

We think of things like Russia's latest move or McCarthy's latest charge.

"Faith is our ally. Doubt our traitor," Dr. Arnold said.

"God is our refuge and strength," Dr. Arnold brought half the program. The other half was two songs given by Harold Blankenship, accompanied by Mrs. W. M. Forester at the piano. They were "Open the Gates of the Temple" by Knapp, and "The Holy City" by Weatherly.

President Herman Roberts appointed a nominating committee composed of Glen Thompson, Joe Arnold, and R. A. Armstrong, all past Civitan presidents, to draw up a slate of new officers to take over early in June.

Individual contributions for membership in the Civic Music Association were taken at the close of the meeting.

VA Machines Discover Duplications Of Serial Numbers For Military Men

By ARTHUR EDSON
WASHINGTON, April 27—(AP)—That serial number you G. I.'s had during the war. Remember how the Army or the Navy or the Marines always said it was your very own? And that they always gave a different one to every conscript?

Well, it turns out there were some duplications after all. Matter of fact, a lot of them.

How many duplications, no one knows for sure.

Machines Make Discovery

The case of the duplicate serial numbers started to develop when the Veterans Administration (VA) began paying off dividends on G. I. insurance.

One of those big machines that lives on punched cards went to work. It hadn't been on the job long before it kicked out two cards for the same number.

The machine was calm about its accomplishment, but the VA people weren't. They knew they were in for a long, hard pull—and they have been.

The VA people say the duplication showed up more among officers than enlisted men. One error: the Army, Navy and Marines might each assign the same number.

But there also were duplications within the services, and that went for enlisted men as well as officers, a VA spokesman said.

"I don't know why," said the VA man, "I guess they were hustling them through the induction centers too fast."

Of the 21,000,000 checks to be distributed, around 1,000,000 have had to be hand-processed. Some of these cropped up because of duplications, but there are other reasons.

The VA man gave this example: "I'll show you what you can run into."

"Suppose a guy enlists and takes out $2,000 in insurance. Later on, he becomes an officer, and takes out $8,000 more."

"Now suppose he missed a payment 'way back there. Well, we try to collect that first, but he says he paid it in time."

"Now to make this just dandy, suppose before it kicked out two cards for the same number."

"That's because the machine won't handle the card on anybody who has more than 15 letters in his last name."

Rhoads Jewelry Loses $1,400 In Goods To Thieves

Watches, cigaret lighters and watch bands valued at $1,400 were stolen from a display window of the Rhoads Jewelry store on North Beaton street early Wednesday morning.

Don T. Venning, store manager, said 18 watches were included in the loot. He said the loss was covered by insurance.

A brick found at the scene of the burglary was believed to have been used to break the show window.

It is not known at what time the robbery occurred but the broken window was reported to city police at 5:30 a. m. by Atty. Jerry Roe.

No attempt was made to break another display window which contained diamonds and other valuable jewels. Venning stated he thought the burglars might have been scared from the scene before they had a chance to break the other window.

The jewelry store was robbed of diamonds in a similar manner in 1947, the store manager said. City police and the sheriff's department have been supplied with a list of the missing items and are investigating the case.

Corsicana Group Routed Wacoans On Tuesday 15-2

Bingles Barrage Gave Walter Bond Another Easy Win

The Corsicana Tigers came from behind at Waco Tuesday afternoon to finish fast with a 15-2 victory over Coach Johnny Riola's Waco Tigers in a 13-AA conference baseball game.

Waco's crew turned its half of the sixth inning into a race track, putting eleven runs across the rubber before Waco's revamped lineup could retire them.

Waco Shifts Lineup
Walter Bond and Bobby Powers were pitted as pitcher's duel of the first magnitude, with Corsicana holding a 3-2 lead in the end of the fifth when the Waco mentor put in a complete new lineup.

It was then that the Corsicans tied off on the offerings of Buddy Martin and Virgil Owen, who followed Powers to the mound.

Charles Bristow paced the 15-hit Corsicana attack with three singles, driving in four runs.

Ganze, Rayborn Matthews and Johnny Crawford turned in two-base blows.

Bond let the Wacoans down with four hits and whiffed 11 batters. He issued six walks.

Meier's First Trouble
Waco scored first in the first frame when Meier doubled and Connolly singled him home. Bond walked Leggett with the bases loaded and two out to give Waco a 2-0 lead.

Crawford scored for Corsicana in the fourth on an error, and the Corsicans went ahead in the fifth on three straight singles by Elbert Berry, Johnny Crawford and Charles Bristow.

Starting the sixth with the new lineup, Ganze's slow roller was mishandled, and that started the flood tide of Corsicana's 11-run spree.

In the seventh, Crawford doubled and came home on Bristow's single for the final Corsicana run.

Navarro College Remains At Top; Downs Blinn 6-4

Bill Reed Went Route Tuesday In Local Tilt

Navarro's Bulldogs cleared the decks for their crucial contest with Panola next week by taking the measure of the Blinn College baseballers at Territo Park Tuesday afternoon, 6-4.

The Bulldogs had to come from behind a 1-run deficit early in the game, but once ahead, they played tight ball and managed to stay there.

Power Hitting
The game saw some power hitting in two homers and one over-the-fence double. One of the grand slams was off the bat of Catcher Bobby Vaughn of the Bulldogs, who did it with one aboard. Kutschke of the visitors registered the other homer, and the outside double was registered by Bill Reed, who brought in a run with it.

Reed went the entire route, whiffing 13 Blinn batters, swinging and missing one base on balls. He hit three batters during the 7-inning stint.

Navarro took a 1-0 lead in the second when Vaughn walked and Reed's double brought him in. Blinn got ahead in the top of the third when Breadthauer drove a walk and Kutschke poked one over the right-center wall for two runs.

Then the Bulldogs put on their four-run spree. Darland walked, and Tarver strided behind him. Earl Watkins' single brought them home and then Vaughn cleared the bases with a clout over the left field palings with plenty to spare. Tarver's single in the fourth brought in Shaw with the remaining Blinn score.

Blinn garnered two runs in the seventh when Reed hit Klesewetter and Sengellman, Chrisman bungled to let in the latter, and Sengellman came home on a slow roller. Navarro got them out after that to end the fracas.

Play Panola Next
Navarro has its next conference game with Panola, which is still undefeated in league play. That comes on May 2, and the Bulldogs may play a practice game before that time, though no definite announcement of it has been made.

Richland Evened Play-Off With State Home Laddies Wednesday 9-3

Richland high school's baseballers evened the playoff score with the State Home Laddies Wednesday afternoon in Richland, winning the contest by a 9-3 tally behind the pitching of Don Allen.

For all practical purposes, the Richland crew won the game in their half of the first frame. They jumped on Leon Hull, starting State Home pitcher, and tallied seven runs in that frame as Hull walked 9 men in lasting 2-3 of the inning. Those free passes plus 2 hits made the difference in the ball game.

Ruey Rush went the rest of the way for the Lads, giving up 3 hits.

Tiger B Squad Defeated Kerens Bobcats 7 to 2

Buddy Caton tossed the Corsicana "B" team to a 7-2 victory over the Kerens baseballers Wednesday afternoon in Kerens in a non-conference encounter.

The Cubs picked up 2 runs in the first frame off a walk and two Kerens errors, then led by that margin until the fifth, when the Bobcats tallied twice off a double, a single and two Corsicana errors to tie the score at 2-2.

In the seventh, Corsicana started the ball rolling and tallied 5 runs off three singles and five walks, when Slater brought in Smith with a ringing double. Brumley hit in the eighth brought in the winning run for Cayuga.

Richard Berry of Dawson went the route, giving up 4 hits and issuing only three free passes. Johnson started for Cayuga, gave up four hits and was derailed at the end of the seventh in favor of Dittles, who let Dawson down hillless in the eighth.

Dawson left 9 men stranded on the bases and Cayuga left 5 in the same fix.

The second game of the playoff series between Dawson and Cayuga will be held in Dawson on Friday afternoon, April 28 at 2 p. m. Dawson officials have announced.

Business Should Be Taught Youth, PTASpeaker Says

Most people think that business is for the older person, but it should be taught to the young as well, Mrs. L. S. Cooper told the David Crockett PTA at its closing meeting Tuesday. Mrs. Cooper, long active in the Corsicana Business and Professional Women's Club, was presented by Mrs. Beula Huff, principal of the school, in the discussion of "Teamwork in the Business World."

The home is the first business a child should learn, Mrs. Cooper pointed out, for here he should be taught the value of a nickel and the limits to which it will go. She suggested that the child be placed on a budget and learn the difference between a necessity and a toy, and said that teamwork is better learned in a home of more than one child.

Miss Alleen Carraway was a visitor for the occasion. Mrs. Amber Pollock served as installing officer for Mrs. John C. Christian, president for 1950-51, and other members of her board.

Picnic Planned
Plans for a closing picnic for the children were discussed. Mrs. H. L. Meador, retiring president, expressed appreciation to the PTA for cooperation this year and called attention to the fact that tickets are available for the Corsicana Council of PTA banquet May 4.

A program was presented by first, second and third grade students.

The first two grades sang "Tweet, Tweet, Tweet" and "Dandelion Parachutes," followed by a playlet, "Mother Goose's Reception." Closing songs by these two classes were "My Little Red Wagon," "Whip Poor Will" and "The Cuckoo Clock."

Choir personnel included Betty Gomez, Glenda Nutt, Jackie Schultz, Joyce Christian, Klein McGhee, Ben Hernandez, Billie Ann Garcia, Jean Miller, Mary Lou Mayo, Verne Spurgeon, Ben Ramirez, Elaine.

Fitzgerald, Dolores Rodgers, Marvin Whitfield, Leslie Sikes, Ruby Roberts, Nancy Ramirez, Gary Arnold, Neva Tanner, Billy Ray Kirk, Maxine Farmer, Stevie Williams, Ernest Fargo, Charles Cantrell, Dixie Johnston and Gail Nichols. Helen Cantrell served as announcer for third grade program features. Also participating in "Dance of the Daffodils" were Patsy Miller, Jerline Farmer, Patsy McElroy, Rachel Ramirez, Mary Roberts, Martha Thompson, Mary Jirasek, Johnnie Miller, Janie Meador and Helen Bean.

Other Program Numbers
Other program numbers were as follows:

vent of the heavy consuming season on this trend would continue. Rodgers said present prospects indicate Texaco will probably add more to its domestic crude oil reserves in 1950 than in any other year in its history. He said "very substantial" reserves in West and South Texas and South Louisiana already have been added, and that recent developments on and adjacent to the company's property in Seury county, Texas, have greatly enhanced the prospective value of that property.

Phillips Petroleum Co. reported net profit for the first quarter of $10,049,580 or $1.66 a share, compared with $12,713,264 or $2.10 a share for the 1949 period. The company's report to stockholders said gross income was because of decreases in allowable crude oil production, smaller sales of purchased crude oil and lower prices for most products. Sales volume for all products increased 7.6 per cent and motor fuel sales volume was up 12.2 per cent compared with 3.2 per cent for the industry.

Newspapers Give People Buying Ideas Every Day

"Every day of the year the public looks to the Newspaper for guidance.

"People expect the newspaper to supply the news—to help them understand the course of affairs and to give them ideas regarding men, women and events which affect their welfare. To help and co-operate with all worthwhile endeavors for good. Thus the newspaper provides the advertiser the greatest opportunities to build good will and volume sales.

"Day in and day out, people turn eagerly to the newspaper. It is the primary source of their information regarding the events of the day—of news and comments on the affairs that interest them and affect their well-being.

"It is the medium they consult every day in the year for guidance in shopping for the things they buy.

"From this continuous contact with people in every station in life springs the newspaper's power as an advertising medium. It is the reason why in any effort to get public acceptance for an idea or a product, the newspaper is basic to advertising.

"To move millions of dollars worth of merchandise sold in individual units to individual customers, the retailers depend chiefly on newspaper advertising.

"From first hand experience they know that it produces at once the volume of store traffic and sales which they require—regardless of politics, season or general conditions.

"Through the columns of the newspaper the retailer can present his products with pictures, diagrams and detailed description and explanation so as to get full appreciation of its beauty, value, utility and economy.

"It is the medium in which he can discuss the policies of management in full—and be sure of reaching the audience most important to him in any plan to create favorable public opinion and volume sales.

"In the newspaper the merchant can come to the point without costly preliminaries and side shows, and without offense to a friendly audience accustomed to direct, frank solicitations.

"He can be sure he is addressing an attentive and intelligent audience—he can share in public interest in the liveliest topics of the day.

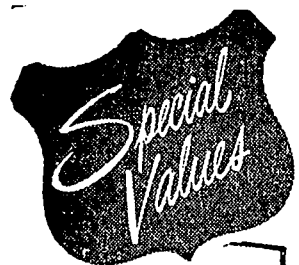

"He risks no loss of public good will through inept or garbled presentations of his advertising message.

"The newspaper's forceful personality appeals to men and women in every walk of life. It presents the message of the advertiser in an atmosphere surcharged with the interest and confidence that get buying action."
